Arthur H. Lambert, son of A. H call attention to our stock of men and Lambert, 938 Pirst avenue, met with a frightful and terrible death upon the farm of Jacob Tanner, near Taylor Ridge, between 5 and 6 o'clock last Saturday afternoon. He went into the country on Memorial day to visit with the family of L. E. Saulspaugh near the Ridge. The boy was well known in that neighborhood, and a favorite with everybody around there. Saturday morning about 10 o'clock. Mr. Tanwas driving past Mr. Sauls-One more item desirable to mention, paugh's residence when Arthur ran out and jumped into his wagon and accompanied bim home. Toward the middle of the afternoon Mr. Tanner Arthur accompanying him. Three loads had been hauled. Arthur was on the front end of the wagon holding the reins while Mr. Tanner was on the wagon facing the rear and throwing off the brush Suddenly the latter heard the boy call out and as he turned, beheld the boy falling from the wagon. He struck on the wagon tongue and the moment he did so the horses became frightened and started to run. They had dashed ahead but two or three rods when the wagon box containing Mr. Tanner was thrown off. The horses, however, continued to run with the boy clinging to the tongue. Mr. Tanner recovered himself as soon as possible and rushed to the boy's side, whom he found lying on the ground a considerable distance from where the team started. It was apparent that the boy was badly hurt as he was anable to sit up, appeared faint and was spitting blood. Mr. Tanner carried him into the house and immediately ran for assistance. Mrs. Mary W. Fryan, a neighbor, arrived, and a messenger was dispatched to Milan for Dr. Wiggins. The little sufferer made no complaints though perfectly conscious. He expressed a realization that he was dying, stated that he wished the terrible news kept from his parents as long as possible and reiterated that no one was to blame for the accident. The brave boy lingered half an hour when he died before medical assistance could reach him Coroner Hawes on being apprised of the facts, went out to Taylor Ridge, accompanied by his son, Maj C. W. Hawes, and the boy's father and held an inquest, a jury being summoned composed of C. W. Hawes (foreman), J. R. Huber, B. F. ne examination of Geo. E. Lambert, Miss May L. Saulspaugh, Jacob Tanner, Mrs. Mary W. Fryer, developed the facts as above given, and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death from injuries received from the running away of a team of horses on the farm

Death was probably the result of concussion of the brain although two ribs had been fractured and were pressed against the heart, both injuries being caused by the horses' hoofs. The boy was born in Rock Island Sept. S. 1879, and was well liked in the city. He was very fond of horses and delighted to be about where they are. The body was brought to the city yesterday and the funeral occurred this afternoon from his parents'

Wm. H. Sage, of Omaha, and one of the Rock Island boys who was born in the center of this city in the year 1844, is in the city visiting his mother, Mrs. Harriet Sage. William, like his brother Harry, was early identified with base ball, having been first baseman of the "Lively Turtles" at the same time that Maj. Buford was center fielder; George Lamont, left field; J. E. Fleming, right field; Joe Gregg, catcher; Willard Baker. second base. They were elegant boys for fun, and the way our boys outplayed the country clubs was a caution. When in this city the "Lively Turtles" entertained the visiting club with mock turtle soup. When the Rock Island club visited surrounding towns they were feasted on vellow legged chickens and the best of fare. Ex-Alderman Charles Negus, who played third base, and Jule Burwell who were the heavy eaters of the club, were at all times pleased when an invitation or challenge was received to play away from home.

Mr. Knox's Will. The last will of the late C. B. Knox was filed for probate this morning. The will bears date of May 25 last and is witnessed by E. D. Sweeney and Dr. S. C. Plummer. The deceased bequeaths to his son, E. B. Knox, a note for $2,000 and certain real estate in the city of Rock Island; to C. B. Knox his gold headed cane presented by the Druids, the sum of $100 and certain real estate in the city of Rock Island; to B. Frank Kuex a gold headed cane presented by the temple of honor, and certain real estate in the city of Rock Island; to Samuel Knox the sum of $500; to Mrs. Mary Knox, the widow, the rest and residue of the personal property and all the real estate to hold during her natural life, the other real estate be quests before named being subject to her life estate. Wm. Helding, a boy em Rock Island glass works, broke a glass roller while carrying it yesterday morning and a piece of the glass cut a severe gash in the right wrist. Dr. G. L. Eyster attended the wounded young man and he is recovering nicely. Mr. B. T. Cable left for Chicago Satorday night. He will attend the state democratic convention at Springfield on Wednesday and go thence to San Autonio to look after his ranch there, and next week will sail for France for the purpose of accompanying his family back to Rock Island.

The widow and sons of the late C. B. Knox desire to publicly express their thanks to their friends for the many offices of kindness during the illness and at the funeral of Mr. Knox, and especially to the Odd Fellows and Druid societies for many affectionate remem brances and attendance upon the funeral.

The open cars are beginning to come out on the blue line of the Moline & Rock island routes of the Holmes system. The entire equipment of summer cars will soon be put on all lines except the bridge ine, where the closed cars will be retained and the open cars reserved for the new Elm and Ninth street routes.

Officers Kramer and Sexton had a lively hunt for some young men of the African persussion yesterday morning who had tackled the Iowa original package busi-ness and then came over to Rock Island to uncork their enthusiasm. They were finally captured and taken to the station where they were registered as Henry Terry, John Thurman and John Smith. The funeral of Harry V. Fry, son of

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fry, was held yesterday afternoon with services at the grave in Chippiannock cemetery, Rev. W. S. Marquis, officiating. The postoffice employes sent a lovely floral anchor, and the choir of the Broadway church sang a number of appropriate selections. Mr and Mrs. Fry have much sympathy in the loss of their little boy who has been plucked in the bloom of young childhood.

The funeral services of the late C. B. Knox at the grave at Chippiannock Saturday were very imposing. They were conducted by the Odd Fellows and Druids. On behalf of the Odd Fellows Mr. E. D. Sweeney delivered a short oration while a Druid quartette composed of Messrs. Joseph Huber. Henry Eckermann, Emil Jacobsen and Charles Wulff rendered the touching song-"There is Rest in the Grave for You," as the Odd Fellows were marched around and deposited their evergreens in the grave.

Horace M. Crosby, of Cordova, called County Clerk Donaldson this afternoon and paid into the county treasure r the amount sufficient to acquire for him a permit to join in wedlock with Miss Mary Lamb, of the same village. Tae husband-elect was born in Cordova town ship, while the bride-to-be is also a native of the soil, having been born in Hampton. The wedding will take place at the home of the bride Wednesday. They will make a wedding trip to Chicago and elsewhere, thereafter settling own on a farm in Cordova township.

Rock Island Carpenters' union, No 166, made its strike this morning for s uniform nine hour day with no reduction in prices, and a general review of the field after the first day's skirmish shows that the men have decidedly the best of it and will probably carry their point within the next twenty-four hours. The firms of Sievers & Anderson, Ohlweiler & Mr. Deere to the same sflect, only it Spilger and Contractors Bleuer and Ritchey and Bick conceded the demands of the men at once, and this morning Contractor W. A. Guthrie, who, nard cleanable dry air refrigerators at with C. J. W. Schreiner, John Volk, Mathias Schnell and Collins Bros, held out in the first, yielded. The consequence was great rejoicing among the strikers, who to the number of forty, gathered at Mr. Guthrie's shop, 1818 Third avenue, where an enthusiastic meeting was held. A speech of a congratulatory order was made by Harry Bostock, and then Mr. Guthrie himself was called upon and addressed the men in a friendly spirit. were raised over the shop and later a col- municated with Moline and Davenport on lection was taken up to purchase a permanent flag which is to be given Mr. Guthrie by the union men as a friendly Hon. Hiram Price requested to proconsideration. During the meeting two non-union men who were working for Collins Bros', on the Y. M. C. A. building near Mr. Guthrie's shop, left their work and joined the Carpenters' union. This afternoon Contractor Schreiner is having a conference with his strikers who number about twenty, and the union hopes that he may concede the nine hour day. There are not over thirty men idle

Way the Hennepin Canal May Fare in the Senate-Influential Work Needed

Saturday sfternoon, Capt. T. J. Robin

This Morning-Who Are Yielding nepin canal organization, received a telegram from Mr. C. H. Deere, of Moline, who is in Washington, stating that the Hennepin canal was likely to be stricken from the river and harbor bill by the senate committee, and that it was very essential that some influential work be done before the measure finally passed out of the hands of that committee, or it would be lost. This morning's mail brought a letter to Capt. Robinson from contained more details as to the actual status of the matter. Mr. Deere urged that representative and influential citizens from this locality proceed to Washington at once, and exert themselves that the senate committee be fully advised as to the importance of the canal, and be given a knowledge of it that they do not now possess. Mr. Deere therefore emphasized the importance of having men of influence on the ground at once, and suggested that Capt. Robinson himself and Dr. Truesdale go to Washington. Dr. Truesdale was seen by the captain, but cannot go, but Capt, Robin-Amid the rejoicing the stars and stripes son will probably go h.aself.
